DGX Pharma wins logistics and distribution contract with Sankyo Pharma France

Stuttgart/Germany, 19 June 2006. DGX Pharma, an operation of the Movianto Group, Europe's specialist pharmaceutical and healthcare logistics provider, has won a new multi-year contract with the Sankyo Pharma France S.A.S. DGX Pharma will provide logistics and distribution services for the whole French market for Sankyo's rheumatology and cardiology product range.

Sankyo Pharma France S.A.S., the French enterprise of Daiichi Sankyo Co. Ltd., the second largest pharmaceutical company in Japan has a long history of strong R&D, including the developing the statin class of lipid-lowering drugs. Sankyo Pharma France was established in 2003 to market the successful company product range in France.

DGX Pharma will manage storage, sales order processing and distribution to wholesalers, hospitals and pharmacies for the French market. Further DGX will also export the products according to the specific requirements of Sankyo. DGX Pharma's new state of the art warehouse is located near Paris and offers an ideal position to service the French pharmaceutical market as well as European markets.

DGX Pharma Business Development Director Alain Bosson says: "Our outsourcing services offers Sankyo a real opportunity to optimise their supply chain whilst focusing upon their key competencies at the same time."
